Since our contract is with the commission we are initiating everything through you. If you approve of the agenda we'll now contact the Mayor's office and MPD.

Thanks

Ray,

That schedule looks fine to me. I assume you are working directly with MPD to set these up (or the mayor's office). Right ?

Most of these suggested meetings involve K2 and MPD directly. However, there are a few (such as the suggested meeting on the MPD's COP and neighborhood watch that could involve someone from the Crime Commission.) Just keep me posted on what you have set up.

Your timing will be pretty good, I think. We are tentatively scheduled to unveil the new 5-year Operation: Safe Community Plan on November 15. A lot in the plan reflects your observations in the Phase 1 report.

We look forward to seeing you.

The team is planning to be in Memphis on November 16 and 17th and I'll be there on November 17th. We'd like to do the following things,

Domestic Violence

- meet with the MPD domestic violence unit and visit the family safety center

Crime analysis

- attend Compstat/blue crush meetings
- meet with crime analysis unit
- visit precinct to discuss use of crime analysis

Gang investigations

- review case files, interview investigators

Community Policing

- meet with MPD Community Outreach Program
- meet with Neighborhood Watch Program
- meet with Citizens Police Academy/Clergy Police Academy

Please give me your thoughts on whether this plan works or any alterations you'd like to see.

All the best,

Ok. Keep us posted.

I am meeting with the police director and mayor Friday and will try to get some feedback on the Phase 1 report.

We've been looking at November 17th or the 21st. I'll forward our proposed agenda tomorrow and would appreciate any feedback you can give us on the reports that have been submitted. Thanks.
